

Gulworthy Parish Council: One vacancy for a Co-opted Parish Councillor

There is a current vacancy for one Parish Councillor at Gulworthy Parish Council.

Would you like to make a difference in your local community?

A parish council is a local authority that makes decisions on behalf of the people in the parish and has an overall responsibility for the well-being of its local community. It is the level government closest to the community.

Councillors play a key role in the life of a Parish Council - they are a vital cog in making life better for its residents. They are the voice of the community representing local people; the lynch pin to partnership work with other levels of local government.

Please take a look at the Gulworthy website and if you are interested in becoming a Councillor or have further questions, please email the Parish Clerk on clerk@gulworthyparishcouncil.gov.uk with a short explanation of why you would like to be a Councillor.

Alternatively pop along to the next meeting held on the first Monday each month or talk to an existing Councillor about the role (see Parish Councillors tab on website).
